Candle Can - by Imad Habab

This can made up from two ashtrays tied to each other, It includes a candle, so the idea is to light the candle inside this can and to use the light in an intensive way by the reflective surface, the way that we can focus the light on something that we are working on, reading, writing, fixing something,...etc "especially when the lectricity cut off". Also we can close the can to package it or to carry it easily.

amel w m7moul - by Yara Al Adib.

This product was a reaction to our suffering from lack of public and pleasant spaces to rest, not to mention the refugees who are constantly searching for public spaces to make their own. 7amel w m7moul is a double sided bag that transforms itself into a cushion thanks to the soft straw base used by our ancestors as food .

Light glow provides the soul with optimism and a new hope of better life. Welded cupcake aluminum cups.

Bis7tak - By Toulin Dima Kabani & Myriam Abouchahla

Individuals are often faced with a lack of space, and they end up striving in a little square meter at the edge of a sidewalk. Plastic chairs are found in every little spot in the streetscape, where it is allowed to stay. Life blooms still, even in one square meter. This project symbolizes this idea, where a little piece of green grows in a plastic bottle.
